

Building resilience by protecting and supporting biodiversity

- Not only including MPA:s but also other areas with high nature values being part of the green infrastructure, incl. climate refugia important for the future
- Better planning solutions from systematic and integrated impact assessments of different plan alternatives
- Increased knowledge on future distribution of key species

Enhancing mitigation by facilitating renewable energy production

[Adaption by sand extraction for beach replenishment]

